Subject:

Nomination of personnel (HC/Constables) on deputation in one lot on year to year basis.

In continuation of Ministry's earlier DO No.Q/BS-II/813/5/2016-626 dated 26 October 2016 and streamlining of procedures pertaining to timely nominations, interview, selection and induction of Head Constables/Constables in Bureau of Security (BoS), it is notified that BoS of the Ministry of External Affairs would require 01 HCs/Constables from Puducherry Police every year under the following terms and conditions:

- (i) They would be inducted to BoS on a three year deputation.
- (ii) The first year of deputation would be on loan basis and be mostly spent in performing duties at Hqrs in Delhi, undergoing orientation and skill upgradation, trainings relevant to Ministry work and completing pre-departure formalities necessary to undertake a security assignment abroad in one of the Indian diplomatic Mission/Post abroad. During this period deputed personnel would be on the rolls of the Force for purposes of pay and allowances but would be attached to BoS for attendance and duties.
- (iii) The remaining two years would be on the strength/rolls of the Ministry wherein pay and applicable allowances would be paid by the Ministry. These two years would usually comprise a security assignment abroad.
- (iv) BoS would return equal number of personnel of appropriate ranks to the Force on year to year basis.
- (v) Needless to say, personnel deputed to the BoS of MEA in May 2017 would be returned in May 2020 and those deputed in 2018 would be returned in 2021 and so on and so forth.
- (vi) A panel of eligible personnel at least three times the requirement may have to be provided by Puducherry Police so as to reach BoS by 30th of June every year. Ministry shall interview them to select and prepare its own panel by 30th of September every year for induction in the next year.
